The Nuremberg Tribunal Scholarships

Are you looking for a way to use your law degree to peacefully mitigate and resolve violent conflict? Do you want to spend your summer networking one-on-one with some of the most influential leaders in the international justice field? Apply today for The Nuremberg Tribunal Scholarship to attend the 2016 The Hague Symposium on Post-Conflict Transitions & International Justice.

This year marks the 70th anniversary of the unprecedented Nuremberg Trials verdicts. An ad hoc military tribunal set up for the sole purpose of trying Nazi leadership during WWII, the Nuremberg Trials remain today a significant pillar of international justice and specifically, international criminal law, demonstrating to the world that individuals can and will be tried for War Crimes. The International Peace & Security Institute (IPSI) is pleased to be able to offer 2 Nuremberg Tribunal Scholarships for the 2016 The Hague Symposium on Post-Conflict Transitions & International Justice worth $2,200 each.

The Nuremberg Tribunal Scholarship Application Due Date: Friday, March 11
Tuition: $4,400-$2,200 The Nuremberg Tribunal Scholarship recipients ($2,200 scholarship)
Webpage: http://ipsinstitute.org/the-hague-2016/

The Hague Symposium on Post-Conflict Transitions & International Justice

When: July 9 – July 30, 2016

Why: Transitioning a society from violence to peace is one of the most difficult processes in our field. To be effective leader, you will need a broad understanding of available mechanisms, options, and theories, as well as a deep understanding of why some transitions are successful and others are failures. Train with IPSI to gain a cross-sectoral perspective and a global network of practitioners/academics.

Where: Clingendael Institute for International Relations

You should apply if you are: An exceptional professional or lawyer, a graduate student, a law student, or an accomplished undergraduate.

The Nuremberg Tribunal Scholarship Application Due Date: Friday, March 11
Tuition: $4,400-$2,200 The Nuremberg Tribunal Scholarship recipients ($2,200 scholarship)

The Hague Symposium Academic Coordinator & Featured Speaker: Prosecutor David Crane

From 2002-2005 David Crane was the founding Chief Prosecutor of the Special Court for Sierra Leone, an international war crimes tribunal, appointed to that position by the Secretary General of the United Nations, Kofi Annan. Serving with the rank of Undersecretary General, Professor Crane’s mandate was to prosecute those who bear the greatest responsibility for war crimes, crimes against humanity, and other serious violations of international human rights committed during the civil war in Sierra Leone during the 1990’s. Among those he indicted for those horrific crimes was the President of Liberia, Charles Taylor, the first sitting African head of state in history to be held accountable. Professor Crane was the first American since Justice Robert Jackson and Telford Taylor at Nuremberg in 1945, to be the Chief Prosecutor of an international war crimes tribunal. Professor Crane serves on IPSI’s Board of Directors and advises the organization on matters related to international justice. David Crane was appointed a professor of practice at Syracuse University College of Law in the summer of 2006.
The Nuremberg Tribunal Scholarship is EXTREMELY competitive.

- Scholarships are merit- and need-based
- Each Nuremberg Tribunal Scholarship covers $2200 (a 50% savings!) of the total tuition. Scholarship recipients are responsible for covering the remaining $2200 of the tuition, as well as travel and accommodation costs.
- Scholarships are for tuition costs only and cannot be used in conjunction with any other reduction in fees offered by IPSI. Under no circumstances does IPSI provide scholarships for travel, visa costs, accommodations in The Hague, or food costs.

Criteria:

- Be between the ages of 22-35;
- Be currently enrolled in a JD or LLM program or equivalent;
- Be committed to a career in international justice;
- Currently be working on issues of peace and security;
- Demonstrate why you are uniquely suited to utilize IPSI’s trainings to foster peace and security;
- Demonstrate financial need.

APPLY TODAY: https://ipsinstitute.fluidreview.com/

For more information about The Hague Symposium or the Nuremberg Tribunal Scholarship, please contact Program Assistant Tatti Currey at tcurrey@ipsinstitute.org or Program Director Kate Elci at kelci@ipsinstitute.org.